SECRETARY'S REPORT

A motion made by Kris and seconded by Laura to accept the April minutes. Passed.

TREASURERS REPORT.

Nor report.

LIBRARY LIASION

No report.

OLD BUSINESS

- Book Sale: Profit from Memorial Day Sale, $514.50; discussed possibility of a big buyers sale, if needed later in the year; so much easier to hold the book sale behind the library, considering holding the Memorial Day sale behind the library next year.
- Wine Tasting--highly successful; Ardeth will write thank you to Lynn Fredericks for all her help obtaining donation; thank you to Rick Sleeper--decided that each FGPL Board member will contribute $10 toward a Northshire Books gift card, which Kristen will purchase and send to him; decided to set a date for next year's wine tasting in September when the school calendar comes out, as finding a date was complicated this year.
- Color Run: Those who attended the Color Run had a great time and the Class of 2019 wants to do it again in the fall. Amanda agrees; Kohl's volunteers want to do it again, too; they consider Homecoming weekend to be the best time to increase attendance; need videos and pictures from June Color Run, to help advertise for fall; will advertise in the Galway Get Together and add to the homecoming calendar.

. NEW BUSINESS

- Liz says our September meeting will be a good time for mock audit.
- Motion made and passed to cancel July meeting.
- Laura says she will oversee brick honor names, when the time comes for this endeavor.

Future times for fund raisers: October--Color Run; November--Paint N sip (Kris is organizing); February--Taste of Chocolate; April--Recovery Room; May--Memorial Day Book Sale; June--Wine Tasting

Adjourned at 7:52 PM

Next meeting: Tuesday, August 15, 2017, 7 PM at Town Hall.

Respectfully submitted,
