Galway Preservation Society Monthly Meeting

24 members plus 10 guests present

Richard called the meeting to order, welcomed everyone and called for the Pledge of Allegiance. He thanked Margie Prasek and Farial English for supplying the baked goods and Arlene Rhodes and Virginia Sawicki for supplying the beverages.

Old Business– Secretary Minutes from the January 4 meeting were read and Phyllis Keeler made a motion to accept the minutes which was seconded and approved. Linda gave the Treasurer’s Report and Book Account Report. Ron Surdyka motioned for acceptance which was seconded and approved.

Committee Updates and New Business–Virginia reported for the Book Committee that the Galway books will be sold this Saturday at the Taste of Chocolate and Galway Lioness Craft Fair from 1-3 pm. Mary Cuffe-Perez reported for the Newsletter that they are doing good with articles for the rest of the year, but that they could always use more ideas for articles and recipes with a story behind them.

Announcements– The overhead projector (3M Model 1720) was listed for sale in the Galway Get Together (per member request at the December 2015 meeting) for $75, or the best offer. The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, March 7 at 7pm, on “Saratoga Springs: It All Began with the Water,” presented by Charlie Kuenzel and Dave Patterson. Dusty Rhodes made a motion to adjourn which was seconded and approved. Virginia introduced Norm Bollen from the Fort Plain Museum and Historic Park who presented a program on, “George Washington and the Mohawk Frontier.”

Respectfully submitted, Martha Brandow, secretary
