November GPS Update

By Bonnie Donnan

As I write this, sitting outdoors in my car with the hope of getting a little rare sunshine and natural vitamin D, there have been sun, showers, a heavy downpour, swiftly moving clouds that only threatened, and teasing patches of sunshine visible on distant hills. I know that I almost always start with a weather comment, but it governs so much of what we do here in the northeast. Many old journals and diaries begin each entry with a weather report. Sometimes it is the only entry for the day, showing that it was regarded as an important thing to record for future reference.

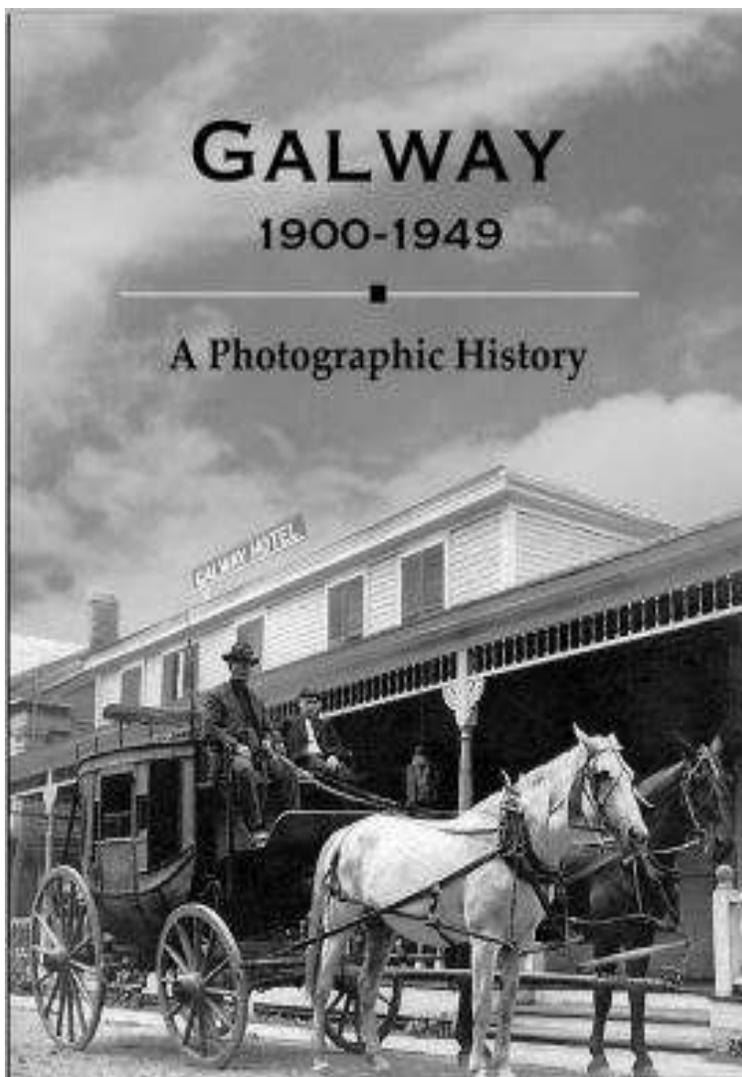

Our October program was presented by Paul Perrault on the on the Malta Rocket Test Site. The November 3rd meeting will be a program by Frank DeSorbo “D-Day Revisited: The Normandy Invasion and Patriot Flights”

We eagerly await the arrival of THE BOOK, our pictorial history of Galway in the first half of the 20th century. It has had a 15 year gestation, but is now at the printer. We are expecting the arrival of the books in late November. The December GPS meeting will be about the book, and the display cases in the Town Hall lobby will highlight some of the content.

Dues were due October 15th. If you haven't paid yet you can pay by mail, or may do so at our meeting. Our treasurer will be happy to see you.

Our next board meeting will be Wednesday October 29th, and as always all members are welcome to attend.

A reminder: Election Day is the day after our next meeting.
